Meeting Minutes

Meeting Called to Order at: 10:00 a.m.

- I. Regional Child Advocacy Center.
 - A. Melissa Norman has received a lot of positive feedback.
 - B. It was recommended to continue to get community support. So far we have several prosecutors, a pediatrician, LEA staff, and mental health agencies interested.
 - C. India spoke with potential grant person: Susie Cray – they are to meet again on Monday – should have more information at next meeting.
 - D. Members asked about being able to expand the center to include helping adults – all felt it was a good idea.

- II. Approval of IV-B service providers – see attached spreadsheet of all approved providers/monies below
- A. Ohio services were read, corrections made, India made motion to approve, Traci seconded – all in favor. An amendment was made to Take WERNLE out of Homemaker and put in White's. Traci made motion to approve, India seconded – all in favor.
 - B. Dearborn services were read, corrections made, Rob made a motion to approve, India seconded – all in favor.
 - C. Jefferson services were read, corrections made, India made a motion to approve, Traci seconded, all in favor.
 - D. Switzerland services were read, corrections made, India made a motion to approve, Traci seconded, all in favor.
 - E. Decatur services were read, corrections made – comment made that you need to specify on referrals whether the provider is to bill Medicaid or IV-B. India made a motion to approve, Mary seconded – all in favor.
 - F. Ripley services were read, corrections made – Traci made a motion to approve, Rob seconded – all in favor.

III. Dearborn MOA

- A. Randy presented MOA for foster parent coordinator – Melissa Norman asked that the dates be changed to coincide with fiscal year/other contract dates (through June 30, 2006). Rob made a motion to tentatively approve until amended version is complete, India seconded – all in favor.
- B. Rob presented child welfare expenditure money for approval; Traci made a motion to approve, Mary seconded – all in favor.
- C. Traci presented MOA for Kristi Tebbe (school – at risk kids program) and Deb Cruser (Family court facilitator). Randy (I think) made a motion to approve, Rob seconded – all in favor.

IV. Miscellaneous

- A. Discussed legislation. HB 1001 – still being debated, let Melissa know your thoughts/concerns as March 14th is the deadline.
- B. Traci was concerned over her CW funds being lowered from $75,000 to $44,000. Will get more information from Dan Gelb.
- C. Continue to lobby support/attendance from community agencies for the Regional Child Advocacy Center, which will be discussed at our next meeting.
